TRANSLATION: I have put under each hymn
the name of the person who composed it.

The Type-setting and Press-work of this Hymn Book were done by John W. Sanborn who, having never learned the printer's art, hopes for this book the charitable consideration of the craft.

PREFACE.

This book contains, designedly, only about the number of hymns which will be readily made use of by the Indians in their public worship and family devotions. The variety is sufficient, and the hymns are arranged under their appropriate headings for convenience. The hymns are also numbered, and the number of each page is at its foot.

I am indebted to the Rev. Joseph Turkey for valuable assistance rendered in the translation of the Psalms and many standard and popular hymns now for the first time printed for the Indians; and, to the late Rev. Asher Wright for hymns translated by him several years ago, some of which I have compiled and inserted in this collection.

May these hymns become instrumental in awakening in the hearts of all who sing them an earnest longing for, and effectual seeking after, that holiness without which "no man shall see the Lord."
